MYSTERIOUS DEATH

Joseph Fallon May Have Been Beaten and Robbed

Joseph Fallon, aged 50 years, was removed from a house at 2 rear of 693 Middlesex street in an unconscious condition last night and taken to St. John's hospital, where it was found that he was suffering from a bruise on the head and internal injuries. The man was unconscious and despite the fact that the physicians at the hospital did everything in their power to save his life he passed away at 12:05 o'clock this morning.

Owing to the mystery surrounding the death the police are investigating the affair and although one arrest was made up to the time of going to press it had not been learned whether the man met his death through accident or otherwise. The police feel that the man may have been beaten and robbed.

The keeper of the house, Herbert E. Hazeltine, was placed under arrest on a complaint of drunkenness, tells two different stories. He at first stated that Fallon fell down a flight of stairs and later changed the story, but owing to Hazeltine's condition, the police feel that the truth may be brought out when he is sobered up.

To Agent, John Freeman, Sergt. Ryan and Patrolman Winters, Hazeltine stated that Fallon came to his house last Friday. Fallon, he said, was intoxicated at the time, and after spending a short time at the house disappeared and later appeared in a dazed condition. When Fallon returned, according to Hazeltine, the man had a black eye and looked as though he had either been fighting or had been attacked by some person and badly beaten.

Last night a physician was called to the house and he ordered the man taken to a hospital. The ambulance was summoned and Fallon was taken to St. John's hospital, but his condition was such that the doctors were unable to save his life.

Hazeltine was placed under arrest and when he appeared in police court this morning he was charged with drunkenness. He entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to 15 days in jail.

Fallon is survived by four brothers, Edward, William, John and James, of this city. The body was removed to the funeral parlors of Undertakers James F. O'Donnell & Sons in Market street.

An autopsy on the body of Fallon will be performed by Medical Examiner J. V. Meigs.

THE MILL OFFICIALS

Said to be Willing to Grant Concessions to Strikers

LAWRENCE, Jan. 18.—An early settlement of the strike of the 15,000 textile mill workers in this city, which has been marked by bloodshed and disorder, was looked for today by certain officials, who have assumed conciliatory duties. A definite plan for arranging an agreement has been submitted to the operatives and owners under the direction of Governor Foss, and it is understood that both sides have agreed, or will soon agree, to arbitrate on the suggested basis. It is understood the plan includes the concessions by the mill owners of the demands of the strikers for 56 hours wages for 54 hours work.

That the strikers have agreed to forego the additional demands of a 15 per cent. increase in wages over the 54-hour rate is understood on good authority. It is believed, however, that they insist on the abolition of the bonus and premium system and that the mill owners are ready to concede this. Their demands for double pay for overtime will be abandoned, it is believed, if the present negotiations prove successful. This is confidentially believed by those in the councils of the mediators and it was predicted that the strike would be over by next Monday.

GOVERNOR FOSS

WORKING HARD TO BRING ABOUT SETTLEMENT OF TROUBLE

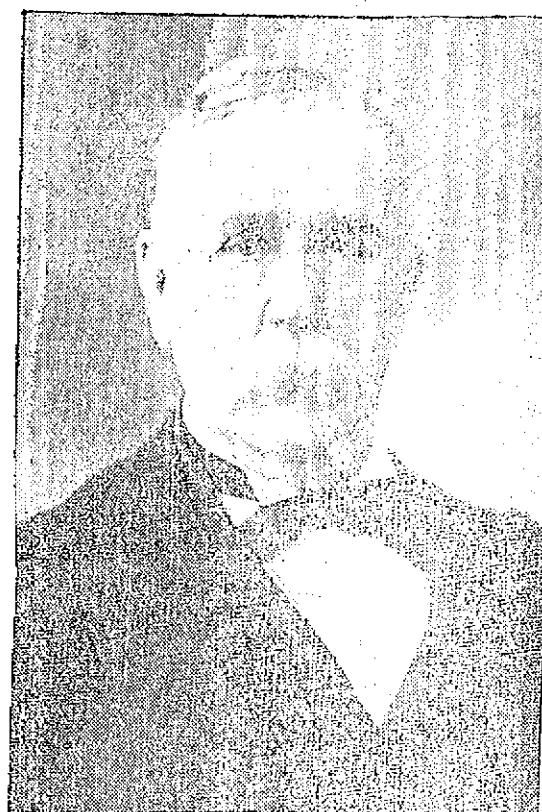

LAWRENCE, Jan. 18.—Prominent in the negotiations to settle the strike, which have been quietly pushed for two days, have been Governor Foss, to whom the progress was reported, and who supervised the mediatory campaign, Colonel Elroy Sweetzer, who is commander of the provisional regiment of state militia which was called into duty in Lawrence to preserve peace, Max Mitchell, president of the Jewish charities of Boston, and Bernard J. Supple, secretary of the state board of arbitration. The plan which was suggested by the strikers and mill owners as means of settling the existing difficulties had its inception with Colonel Sweetzer, Mr. Mitchell at the same time was proceeding along very similar lines and an understanding was reached between them as to how it was to be worked out. Col. Sweetzer conferred last evening with Joseph Ector, the

JUDGE S. P. HADLEY

JUDGE SAMUEL P. HADLEY

Will Retire from Police Bench Next Saturday

Judge Samuel P. Hadley, who has presided on the bench since his successor presided over the session of the local police court for nearly 27 years, will retire to private life Saturday. His presence in the court room will be missed by those who have been in the habit of seeing him daily, but his honor feels that the remaining days of his life should be spent in retirement. On October 17th Judge Hadley went to Boston and in conference with Gov. Foss, at the state house, requested that he be retired. The governor, who, while acquainted with the judge in an official capacity only, had heard considerably of him, and after expressing regret in the fact that the governor had appointed a judge losing such an official, accepted the request and the council had confirmed the appointment. Judge Hadley said he would retire.

HOME RULE CAMPAIGN

Interest in Fight Renewed With Arrival of Leading Politicians

DUBLIN, Jan. 15.—Most of the active politicians having now returned from a brief holiday, interest in the Home Rule campaign is becoming more acute every day. During the last few weeks the unionists have made much use of the recent papal decree forbidding Catholics under pain of excommunication, to support, ecclesiastical before the law tribunals. Dr. Patrick O'Donnell, Roman Catholic Bishop of Raphoe, has now followed Archbishop Walsh of Dublin in expressing the opinion that the papal decree does not apply to Ireland.

John Dillon and John Redmond, two of the Nationalist leaders, today gave out statements in regard to land purchase in Ireland. John Dillon, in a letter concerning the tenants in the county of Clare who have not been able to effect purchases of their land under the terms of the land purchase act of 1903 which empowered the government to lend money to tenants to enable them to purchase their holdings says: "If the lords hold up home rule it will be necessary to institute a campaign on the land question and bring pressure to bear on the landlords of the county of Clare to sell their estates on reasonable terms."

THE DRACUT "POLIS"

Are Getting Ready for the Campaign

The former present and future politicians of Dracut are getting their speeches in shape for the first of next month when it is expected the annual political campaign will open.

The town meeting will be held on March 4, at which time the election of the town officials is held, and the different articles inserted in the town warrant voted upon. The warrant has not as yet been arranged but the officials of the town are now working up their reports to have things in shape for the first of the month, when their report will be submitted. Then the warrant will be put in shape by the following who are serving as selectmen, W. E. Garland, chairman; Percy A. Smith and Fred E. Pollard. They expect to have the warrant ready by Feb. 25.

The committee appointed to revise the by-laws of the town have practically finished their work and they expect to submit a report of the changes which are numerous and important at the state house by next week. The men serving on this committee are town clerk, John Brennan; W. E. Dodge, Harold Fox, Frank Kierulff, Chairman Walter E. Garland of the board of selectmen, assisted by the town counsel, Warren W. Fox.

The Junior Holy Name society basketball team of St. Patrick's parish will meet the quintet representing the Angel Guardian society of St. Joseph's church in the St. Joseph hall tonight. The "Acres" boys will appear on the floor tonight with a new manager, John Martin of Suffolk street, was chosen to have charge of the quintet for the remainder of the season.

INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL

The Expenses Amounted to $9,000

Up to January 1

The total expense of the Lowell Industrial school up to January 1, 1912, was $9005.21. The tuition charges from non-resident pupils were $1511.25 and the expected reimbursement by the state is placed at $3244.66. Following is an analysis of the expenses:

Salaries of day school teachers	$3,517.01
Janitors of day schools	$35.75
Salaries of evening school teachers	$57.50
Janitors of evening schools	$45.50
Total of salaries	$3,655.76
Repairs of buildings	$2,057.51
Equipment and supplies	$351.94
Total	$6,065.21
Total of salaries and bills	$14,061.12

In order to arrive at the probable expense of the school for 1911 the amount received for tuition from non-residents and the amount that it is expected will be reimbursed by the state are deducted from the total of salaries and bills and it leaves a balance of $9005.21.

The state pays part of the cost of material and supplies but does not pay any part of the cost of repairs to buildings. The school is well patronized by pupils from the neighboring towns and their eagerness to attend is considerably greater in proportion than that of the city boys and girls, though their attendance is far beyond the anticipations of the most sanguine advocates of the school.

Statement of Attendance

The school was opened in September and the following is a statement of the average daily attendance from September to December:

Machine shop course and blue print reading and arithmetic, 40; carpentry, 21; steam engineering for engineers, 15; steam engineering for firemen, 14; electrical engineering, 55; auto repairing, 73; plumbing, 57; weaving and loomfixing for French operatives, 41;

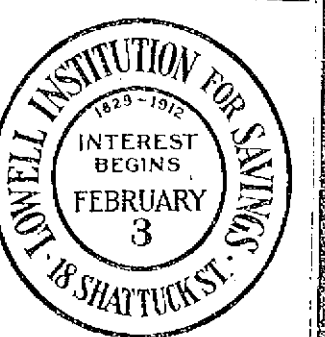

picker and card room practice, 34; weaving and loomfixing for Greeks, 25; Women's Department

The following is a statement of the number of pupils attending the housekeeping, millinery and dressmaking classes for the week of Dec. 16: Dressmaking for women over 17—Monday 108, Tuesday 127, Wednesday 103, Thursday 88, Friday 24. Women under 17—Monday 28, Tuesday 25, Wednesday 28, Thursday 18, Friday 24.

Full Time Pupils Following is a report of the number of pupils attending the school December 23, 1911: Boys' school, Old Bartlett, all departments, 134; Girls' school, full time pupils 65, part time pupils 151.

Teachers and Enrollment The following gives the rooms, teachers and attendance: Boys' Building 1: rooms 5; teachers 6; pupils enrolled 131; average belonging 110; average attendance 104; per cent. attendance 83. Girls' Building 1: rooms 3; teachers 3; pupils enrolled 65; average belonging 55; average attendance 54; per cent. attendance 82. The part time housekeeping classes are held one afternoon a week and the average attendance is 170.

THE MARKET BUILDING

Police Department Pays Big Share of Maintenance

As the commissioner of public safety, Mayor O'Donnell in making a study of the affairs of the police department has unearthed a whole lot of interesting facts about the old Market building, used at present and for years back as a county court and a police station. Most important among the matters which have been brought to light by his Honor's research is the fact that the police department is spending a considerable amount of money on the building which he feels it ought not to spend and for which it gets no credit on the books of the city. On account of his other duties which prevent him from looking after the police department as he intends to, but it seems under the department of public safety while investigating for the purpose of getting light relative to the coming police department appropriation and the various questions of the fact that he learned the facts which, in the connection, made him sit up and take notice.

38 WERE DROWNED

British Steamer Wrecked on the Bullers of Buchan

ABERDEEN, Scotland, Jan. 18.—The British steamer, Weston Hill, was wrecked on the Bullers of Buchan, a group of dangerous rocks off the coast of Aberdeen, thirty-eight of her crew were drowned. Thirty-five of them went down with the ship and five others clung to the wreckage, but only two of them succeeded in reaching shore. The seas were so high that it was impossible to launch a lifeboat. The lifeboat crew of the vessel tried several times to put out to sea but their craft was lifted back on the shore. Most of the drowned sailors were Lascars. The Weston Hill was a vessel of 2170 tons and was built at Greenock, Scotland, in 1890. She was owned by the Hall & Co. of Liverpool.

MILLS RESUME WORK

FALL RIVER, Jan. 18.—The two mills of the American Thread Co., which shut down last Saturday owing to the strike of 150 carders and twistors due to dissatisfaction over the 54 hour law, resumed operations this morning. A statement was issued by the mill officials to the effect that the strikers had not returned to their work but many other operatives had filled their places and they expected to continue operations without being seriously crippled. They stated that under no circumstances would they yield to the demands of the strikers. The strikers held a mass meeting this morning also and voted to continue the strike until their demands for the same pay under the new law which prevailed under the 56-hour law were met.

WANT POLE LOCATIONS

Hearing Held on Electric Light and Telephone Co.'s Petitions

The first public hearing for the petition of the Lowell Electric Light Co. for a pole location in Walker street, between Grove and Branch streets. The mayor read the petition and declared the hearing opened for the petitioners. The petitioners were not represented and the hearing was declared open for the respondents. George P. Green, representing Mrs. John P. Green, appeared as a respondent. The mayor read a notice from Miss Anna Peavey, through her counsel, J. E. Davis, objecting to the location. He also read a letter of objection from Arthur R. O. Booth. On motion of Mr. Booth the petition was referred to the commissioner.

of life is and highways and common-places of public buildings.

Mayor O'Brien said he did not see what way to be gained by referring to the two respondents. In question and answer on this motion, Alderman Brown withdrew his motion and the petition was given leave to withdraw.

The next petition to be heard was that of the Lowell Electric Light Co. for a pole location in Walker street, between Grove and Branch streets. The petitioners were not represented and there were no respondents. On motion of Alderman Curran the petition was granted. Mayor O'Brien said he did not see what way to be gained by referring to the two respondents. In question and answer on this motion, Alderman Brown withdrew his motion and the petition was given leave to withdraw.

The next hearing was on the petition of the New England Telephone & Telegraph company for pole locations in Durant street and Washington street.

The petition was represented by William Johnson who said he was prepared to answer questions. No respondents in the Durant street location were in evidence though a letter, recommending the location, was read. The petition was referred to the commissioner in charge of public streets and highways.

Next up was the Washington street petition from the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co. for three pole locations. Mrs. Mary H. McQueen appeared as a respondent. She said the poles would spoil the look of her property and she did not want them on her lot. The house, she said, is a stranger's property on the street. She said that poles were placed there Nov. 27, 1911, and she said she had heard a word about what was going to be done, but later she read in the papers that a hearing was to be held on a petition for a location there.

The petition was referred to the commissioner in charge of public streets and highways. The location was declared closed at 2:15 and the council adjourned to meet again at 3 o'clock.

Alderman Barrett went to Boston this morning intending to return in time for the meeting but he missed his train and telephoned that he would not be here until 2 o'clock and asked that the meeting be not called before that time.

ADVANCE ON PEKING

Is Planned by Republican Leaders

SHANGHAI, Jan. 18.—Four transports conveying 4000 republican troops, chiefly infantry and artillery, sailed today from Woosung for Chi Fung. Several other transports were lying at Woosung preparing to depart for the same destination with further reinforcements.

This is the beginning of the plan of campaign drawn up by the republican commanders for an advance on Peking. The plan as arranged is that five columns shall advance simultaneously for Chi Fung, through Shan Tung, into Shan Si, Hopei and Shen Si, all converging on the capital.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

That the management of the Academy of Music is alive to novelties can be illustrated in no better way than by the fact that during the next three days he has added to his already large show one of the principals of the former Bowser-Horton Stock company, playing at the Hathaway theatre, Miss Marie Horton. Miss Horton has faithfully prepared a little vaudeville act which will, no doubt, meet the approval of her many friends in Lowell and those who already are aware of her versatility will once again be pleasantly surprised. In addition to this, one of the greatest school acts ever placed on the stage will be a leading feature, while the Hathaway Stock company will produce "The New Judge," a screaming farce, with 10 characters in the cast. An extra good show of photographs has been booked and everything points towards one of the best shows of the year.

STRANGLED TO DEATH FOUR OF DEFENDANTS

Men Who Threw Bomb at Chinese Premier Were Executed

PERKING, Jan. 18.—The three men who were arrested after they had thrown the bomb at the carriage of Premier Yuan Shi Kai were strangled to death today by the public executioner.

President Yuan Shi Kai attended today the memorial rites for the captain of his escort, who was killed by a splinter from the bomb.

The premier has been granted three days' leave, ostensibly on account of ill-position arising from the excitement caused by the attempt on his life. It is thought, however, that the real reason is that he does not desire to attend the conference of the empress dowager and the princes of the imperial court on the question of the abdication of the throne, which has been called at the imperial palace tomorrow.

On Trial in Connection With the Death of Mary Bolduc

BOSTON, Jan. 18.—When the case of that there would be but four defendants, Miss Mary Bolduc, who it is alleged, was instead of five, as he had not died in a West Roxbury house as the pressed the indictment against Miss Bolduc in the superior criminal court, for four defendants were then placed on trial, Miss Mary O'Neil of Manchester.

for, N. H. and Mrs. Annie Reed of Boston, charged with being the principals and Dr. John Ferguson of Manchester and Mrs. Jeanie Shattuck of Boston as accessories.

The first witness was Miss Alice Ferguson of Manchester, sister of Dr. Ferguson, who stated that so far as she knew her brother was not related to Miss O'Neil. Under cross examination Miss Ferguson said that she had heard that her brother was married to Miss O'Neil but three weeks ago Dr. Ferguson denied it. The importance of this testimony was shown by the statement of counsel at the recess that if Dr. Ferguson could be proved the husband of Miss O'Neil, the case against him could not be pressed.

CARDINAL IN TEARS

his heart as to a loving son and brother, and that voice which seemed to speak in tones of inspiration in public discourse, proclaiming to the world the church's enemies. I have never before that God has placed in the chair of Peter a man after Christ's own heart to meet the needs of the time.

It is that feeble old man, frail and infirm, but one sees that his old insistence is founded on the eternal faith in the saints, strong as the belief that God is with him and his church as he had promised the world ever be.

The conclusion of his address the cardinal ascended from the throne, and in the blessed ceremony of "Te Deum" being sung, he was assisted by children, assisted by priests and seminarians, and on the left side of the altar.

Cardinal Farley then pronounced the benediction and the organ pealed forth again, "We Praise Thy Name."

AT CALVARY CHURCH

Principal Brodeur Lectured on Tennyson

Principal Clarence A. Brodeur of the Westfield State Normal school, entertained a large audience at the Calvary Baptist church last evening, with a two hours' lecture on Tennyson. The Calvary choir assisted in the evening's program and gave an excellent series of selections.

Mr. Brodeur gave much interesting information on the life work of the great poet. That the speaker has given Tennyson much study, and has a deep appreciation of the poet's masterpieces was evident by the expression which marked the recitations that he gave. He also gave an excellent explanation of the origin and purpose of the work.

The pathetic poem, "Break, Break, Break," written after the death of Tennyson's dearest friend Arthur Henry Hallam, was recited with much feeling, and by contrast, "The Brook," with its merry rhythm, was revealed. "The Idylls of the King" gave Mr. Brodeur the greatest opportunity for dramatic expression, and added interest was given to his work by brief, though comprehensive, connecting links in the chain of recitations.

Tennyson music sung by Mrs. Daisy Ripley Duncan, Mrs. Horace R. Hanson, Louis Masson and Joseph Heath, gave a pleasing feature of the evening. The lecture-recital was one of the series of instructive entertainments in the "new departure course."

The Revue. The Brook. The Idylls of the King. The Coming of Arthur. Gerald and Elid. Lovelace and Elaine. Ginevere.

Contralto Solo, "Two Lads," Lindsay. Mrs. Borne, R. Hanson. The Princess. The Eagle Song. Sweet and Low. Quartet, "Sweet and Low,"... Barlow. Maid. Trio Solo.

"Come Into the Garden, Maud,"... Louis Masson. Soprano Solo, "Crossing the Bar," Busch. Mrs. Daisy Ripley Duncan.

The next entertainment in the New Departure course will come Wednesday night, Jan. 24, when A. L. Harlow will speak on the subject "Blessed Be Honor."

LATEST MUSIC, ASSO. FRI. EVE.

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

A dramatization by Robert M. Baker, George R. McCarthens's stirring story, "The Last of the Mohicans," will be given at the Lowell Opera House, on three days commencing Thursday, Jan. 25, with a Saturday matinee. The production is under the management of Messrs. DeLancey and Norris, and will be given an accurate scenic treatment and presented with a cast of interesting players. Popular prices will prevail for this engagement, and the seats will be an early sale Friday morning for all performances.

JOHN DREW One of the events of the past theatrical season will be the appearance of John Drew in his new production, "The Sign of the Cross," at the Opera House for one performance.

John Drew will be seen in his latest success, "A Single Man." Mr. Drew will be seen in Lowell immediately following his Boston engagement.

MUTT AND JEFF "Mutt and Jeff" will be presented at the Opera House, Jan. 20 and 21, by a company of more than fifty people, including a chorus of pretty girls that will be with the production. Mr. Hill secured the company in an endeavor to select players especially fitted for the various roles and is said to have succeeded wonderfully. The characters of Mutt and Jeff, it is promised, will be as real as they have appeared on the busy pages of the papers throughout the country.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

A first-class vaudeville entertainment provides genuine enjoyment to all, and it is highly amusing to the friends of the most exciting. At the Merrimack Square theatre patrons are never disappointed in the bill given from week to week and the one scheduled this week is up to the usual standard of the past. Kuma's Japs, equilibrist and musical artists, give a very clever act in which music and head and hand balancing are the contributing features. Strikingly handsome stage settings add to the quality of the piece. Barker's Musical Dogs give a new and novel animal act that's thoroughly enjoyable and Manning and Doyle are excellent dancers. Billy and Ethel Hall are charmingly funny in their original sketch and Dickson and Floyd have an offering of their own manufacture that's awfully good. The new series of photo-plays for the best three days of the week are among the best of the latest manufacture. The views of world-wide events, provided exclusively to the Merrimack Square theatre, are also good. Friday night selections

THE PRESIDENT'S PLAN

To Force Congress to Carry Into Effect Certain Policies

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Widespread publicity is one of the weapons which President Taft proposes to employ in obtaining from Congress the legislation necessary to carry into effect his plans of efficiency and economy in the administration of the business of the government, according to Harvey S. Chase of Boston, a member of the President's Efficiency and Economy Commission.

The president has given as direct instructions to resolve themselves into a publicity commission," said Mr. Chase today while stopping over here, "to have the importance of this subject of efficiency and economy in the administration of the government, understood by the people. He does not expect that the measures he has proposed and which he has approved will be received by Congress without opposition, from some quarter or other. For instance, the placing of the heads and other appointive officials of many departments under the civil service regulations would mean the abolition of the patronage of perhaps 10,000 offices which will not please the politicians. But he believes that if the people once understand what scientific management in government administration means, the welfare of the country, a public sentiment will be created which Congress cannot resist.

"At the present time different departments perform work that belongs to the same governmental function. In our report on the subject of a system of budget which will be made in due time we are going to place a striking comparison before the country which will enable the people for the first time to see what the operation of the different functions of the government is costing. It will show the expenditures of the various departments classified by functions for the fiscal year of 1911, statistics similarly classifying the actual expenditures for 1910 and classified estimates of necessary expenditures for 1912."

POLICE COURT

KEEPER OF LODGING HOUSE WAS FINED

This morning's session of the police court proved to be a very short one, and the cases were disposed of in quick order.

Herbert E. Hazeltine, keeper of the house where Joseph Fallon was found fatally injured last night, was charged with being drunk, and after entering a plea of guilty, was sentenced to 15 days in jail.

William Broadbent was sentenced to three months in jail, William Cassidy was fined $5 and one first offender was fined $2.

The bulk of the estate he played in trust for the benefit of relatives.

STATE OF ANARCHY

Exists in Macedonia, According to One Correspondent

LONDON, Jan. 18.—The reports of special correspondents in Macedonia and other parts of Turkey describe in the most gloomy strain the condition of affairs throughout Turkey generally.

According to one writer, Macedonia is in a state of anarchy. The conditions are even worse than they were under the rule of the Sultan Abdul Hamid. There is a complete absence of security for life and property, and the authorities appear to be unable to put any check on the prevailing lawlessness.

Another special correspondent says that a similar state of affairs exists in northern Albania and that the first outbreak may be expected to occur in that region.

The condition of unrest in Turkey is fully realized by the European powers who are anxious to bring about a cessation of hostilities between Turkey and Italy before the seven is sufficiently advanced for the Macedonians and Albanians to begin their campaign of guerrilla warfare. The whole country from the Aegean sea to the Adriatic is ripe for rebellion. Bulgaria and Greece, however, are maintaining the most cordial attitude in their relations with Turkey.

CAPTAIN CRUIKSHANK

Was Engaged to Wealthy Young Woman

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Miss Catherine Robert, daughter of a wealthy widow of Flatbush, announced today that she was engaged to marry Captain Eustace Cruikshank, who disappeared from his home in Potsdam, N. Y., in June, 1910. Captain Cruikshank was last married to him as dead until recently, when he was found to be living here under the name of Donald Douglas.

It was under this name, Miss Robert said, that he wooed her. Miss Robert said that she had not learned until today of her fiancé's real identity. "I have been deceived, absolutely," said Miss Robert. "I met Mr. Cruikshank, whom I knew as Mr. Donald Douglas, some time ago. He introduced himself as a single man and told of the hardships he had experienced in his travels over the world. We had decided to marry."

ARREST PLAYERS

"Playboy" Actors Were Bailed at Once

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 18.—Warrants for the arrest of every member of the cast of "The Playboy of the Western World" were served yesterday and bail was entered for them for a hearing before a magistrate.

The players are charged with "taking part in a theatrical performance of an immoral character, or which might tend to corrupt morals." The warrants were sworn to by Irishmen connected to the production.

Under an act of the state legislature passed at a recent session, a fine not to exceed $1000 or imprisonment of not more than one year, or both fine and imprisonment, may be inflicted, should they be found guilty.

Fourteen men accused of inviting to riot in trying to break up Tuesday night's performance of the play were arrested yesterday. Those whose offenses were deemed most flagrant were held in $500 bail for court, while others were discharged.

You have read of the recent fire in New York City where millions of dollars were lost and more than a billion of dollars in the vaults of the burning building were threatened with destruction. How is it such a great fire gets beyond control? Chief Hosmer says Lowell's safety has been because his men "get on the spot and at work quickly." Seconds count. From the Vaults of the Middlesex Trust Co. to the Central Fire Station is 50 Yards in Distance. The firemen have but to roll out of bed and they are on the spot.

BODY OF A CHILD THE MILL OFFICIALS HOSMER RE-ELECTED

Was Found in the Snow in

They followed the tracks and found the body of a child. The tracks on the snow and upon found matter was reported to the police and the body of a new born child lying in Undertaker McKenna was sent after the snow. The right ear of the child, the body which he removed to his father's house, was badly bruised.

HE SUES FOR $5,463.81

Famous Globe Trotter Enters Action
Against Mrs. C. Viens

Laurent Revel, the famous globe trotter, has brought suit against Mrs. Cordelia Viens of New Bedford, who is the owner of the New Bedford hotel of this city, for the recovery of $5,463.81, money he claims he loaned to Mrs. Viens.

The case was brought before the superior court last September and at that time was referred to Gilbert J. Hill as referee to hear the case and report his findings. The proceedings are now being held at the police court, Messrs. W. A. and J. A. Hogan for the respondent, while Messrs. A. G. Hume and William H. Bent appear for the plaintiff.

Mr. Revel is a familiar figure in this city, for he was very noticeable, being always with his large black dog, which accompanied him on his trip around the world. He is the author of a very interesting book, which gives a good account of his travels.

THE MILL OFFICIALS
Said to be Willing to Grant Concessions to Strikers

LAWRENCE, Jan. 18.—An early settlement of the strike of the 15,000 textile mill workers in this city, which has been marked by bloodshed and disorder, was looked for today by certain officials, who have assumed conciliatory duties. A definite plan for arranging an agreement has been submitted to the operatives and owners under the direction of Governor Foss, and it is understood that both sides have agreed, or will soon agree, to arbitrate on the suggested basis. It is understood the plan includes the concessions by the mill owners of the demands of the strikers for 56 hours work.

That the strikers have agreed to forego the additional demands of a 15 per cent. increase in wages over the 54-hour rate is understood on good authority. It is believed, however, that they insist on the abolition of the bonus and premium system and that the mill owners are ready to concede this. Their demands for double pay for overtime will be abandoned, it is believed, if the present negotiations prove successful. This is confidentially believed by those in the councils of the mediators and it was predicted that the strike would be over by next Monday.

5000 STRIKERS
TOOK PART IN PARADE THIS AFTERNOON

LAWRENCE, Jan. 18.—More than 5000 strikers crowded on the common for a great outdoor mass meeting at 2 o'clock. The parade, headed by a band and two hundred female strikers, started at 2 o'clock. In line were about 500 persons, all of whom were instructed by the strikers to refrain from violence and keep out of the mill district.

GOVERNOR FOSS
WORKING HARD TO BRING ABOUT
SETTLEMENT OF TROUBLE

LAWRENCE, Jan. 18.—Prominent in the negotiations to settle the strike, which have been quickly pushed for two days, have been Governor Foss, who supervised the mediatory committee, Colonel Elmer Sweetser, who is commander of the provisional regiment of state militia which was called into duty in Lawrence to preserve order, and Max Mitchell, president of the Jewish charitable of Boston, and Bernard J. Scapple, secretary of the state board of arbitration.

The plan which was suggested to the strikers and mill owners as means of settling the existing difficulties had its inception with Colonel Sweetser, Mr. Mitchell at the same time was proceeding along very similar lines and an understanding was reached between them as to how it was to be worked out. Col. Sweetser conferred last evening with Joseph Elton, the

EDWARD S. HOSMER
Re-elected Chief of Fire Department.Unanimously Chosen Chief of the Fire Department

It was 3:15 o'clock when Mayor O'Donnell called the municipal council to order, in regular session, this afternoon, having awaited the arrival of Ald. Barrett from Boston.

The first matter taken up was a petition from John C. King, who is a candidate for assessor, and he has filed a petition with the city council asking for a hearing to investigate the methods of assessing taxes in Lowell with a view to improving the efficiency of that department.

The petition reads as follows:
Lowell, Mass., Jan. 18, 1912.
To the Honorable Mayor and Municipal Council of the City of Lowell: Respectfully represents John C. King that he believes that the system, means and methods now employed by the board of assessors, in the assessment of taxes is and are faulty, inefficient and inadequate, and therefore, unfair and unjust.

Wherefore your petitioner prays that a hearing may be had before your honorable board and the aforesaid system, means and methods may be investigated to the end that said system and methods may be improved to meet the demands of justice, fairness and equality.

(Signed) John C. King.

On motion of Alderman Barrett the petition was received and a date set for a hearing. The date set was Jan. 24, 7:30 p. m.

Grand Trunk Petition
On motion of Alderman Brown the city solicitor was instructed to keep tabs on the petition of the Grand Trunk railroad in the legislature for entrance into Boston, through Lowell, and to keep the municipal council informed as to the progress made, and that the city clerk be instructed to communicate with the Grand Trunk seeking information as to the Lowell and Westford lines and the establishment of a station here.

A Legislative Agent
Mayor O'Donnell spoke on the matter of the city employing a legislative agent at the state house. The mayor said he did not believe in it. He said that legislative agents had been to see him and he told them he didn't believe in appropriating money for that purpose.

Alderman Barrett wanted to know if other cities in Massachusetts employed a legislative agent or if it was simply an easy way of getting a little soft money.

Joseph Fallon May Have Been

Joseph Fallon, aged 50 years, was removed from a house at 2 rear of 602 Middlesex street in an unconscious condition last night and taken to St. John's hospital, where it was found that he was suffering from a bruise on the head and internal injuries. The man was unconscious and despite the fact that the physicians at the hospital did everything in their power to save his life he passed away at 12:05 o'clock this morning.

Owing to the mystery surrounding the death the police are investigating the affair and although one arrest was made, up to the time of going to press it had not been learned whether the man met his death through accident or otherwise. The police feel that the man may have been beaten and robbed.

38 WERE DROWNED

British Steamer Wrecked on the Bullers of Buchan

ABERDEEN, Scotland, Jan. 18.—The British steamer, Wistow Hall, was wrecked this morning on the Bullers of Buchan, a group of dangerous rocks off the coast of Aberdeenshire. Thirty-eight persons were drowned. Thirty-five of them went down with the ship and five others clung to the wreckage, but only two of them survived in reaching shore. The seas were so high that it was impossible to launch a lifeboat. The lifeboat crew of the village of Bullers tried several times to put out to sea but their craft was blown back on the shore. Most of the drowned sailors were lascars. The Wistow Hall was a vessel of 2100 tons and was built at Greenock, Scotland, in 1899. She was owned by the Hall Line of Liverpool.

MILLS RESUME WORK

FALL RIVER, Jan. 18.—The two mills of the American Thread Co., which shut down last Saturday owing to the strike of 146 carders and twistors due to dissatisfaction over the 54 hour law, resumed operations this morning. A statement was issued by the mill officials to the effect that the strikers had not returned to their work but many of the operatives had filled their places and they expected to continue operations without being seriously crippled. They stated that under no circumstances would they yield to the demands of the strikers. The strikers held a mass meeting this morning also and voted to continue the strike until their demands for the same pay under the new law which prevailed under the 56 hour law were met.

WANT POLE LOCATIONS

Hearing Held on Electric Light and Telephone Co.'s Petitions

The first public hearing by the municipal council was held in the order-making chamber at city hall this afternoon. The hearing led to the pole locations petitioned for by the Lowell Electric Light and Telephone Co. and the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. There were two women, representing the petitioners, present when the hearing opened. There were three members present when the roll was called, the mayor and Aldermen Brown and Cummings. It was not recorded as a regular meeting. The mayor announced that the regular meeting would come later. The first hearing was on a petition of the Lowell Electric Light Co. for a pole location in Walker street, between Grove and Branch streets. The mayor read the petition and declared the hearing open for the petitioners. The petitioners were not represented and the meeting was declared open for the respondents. George P. Green, representing Mrs. Ellen A. Green, appeared as a respondent. The mayor read a notice from Mrs. Anna Harvey, through her counsel, J. P. Owens, objecting to the location. He also read a letter of objection from Arthur H. G. Booth. On motion of Ald. Brown the petition was referred to the commissioner.

of streets and highways and consider

Mayor O'Donnell said he did not see what was to be gained by referring to the two commissions in question, and after a short discussion, Alderman Brown withdrew his motion and the petitioners were given leave to withdraw.

The next petition to be read was from the Lowell Electric Light Co. for a pole location in Wentworth street. The petitioners were not represented and there were no respondents. On motion of Alderman Cummings the petition was granted. Mayor O'Donnell voting against. He said he was opposed to any more poles in our public thoroughfares. If they don't have to have them, he didn't want them in larger cities, we don't have to have them here, said the mayor.

The next hearing was on the petition of the New England Telephone & Telegraph Co. for pole locations on Durant street and Washington street.

The petitioner was represented by Wilfred Johnson, who said he was prepared to answer questions. No respondents to the Durant street petition were in evidence though a letter, remonstrating, was read. The petition was referred to the commissioner in charge of public streets and highways. Next up was the Washington street petition from the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co. for three pole locations. Mrs. Mary H. McQueen appeared as a respondent. She said the poles, still the backs of her property and she did not want wires so close to the house. "I object strongly to poles on the street," she said. She said that poles were placed there before 1911, and said she had not heard a word about what was going to be done, but that she read in the papers that a hearing was to be held on a petition for a location there.

The petition was referred to the commissioner in charge of public highways and streets.

The hearings were declared closed at 2:15 and the council adjourned to meet again at 7 o'clock.

ADVANCE ON PEKING Is Planned by Republican Leaders

SHANGHAI, Jan. 18.—Four transports conveying 900 republican troops, chiefly infantry and artillery, sailed today from Woosung for Chi Fu. Several other transports were lying at Woosung preparing to depart for the same destination with further detachments. This is the beginning of the plan of campaign drawn up by the republican commanders for an advance on Peking. The plan as arranged is that five columns shall advance simultaneously for Chi Fu, through Shan Tung, Ho Nan, Ho Pei and Shen Si, all converging on the capital.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

That the management of the Academy of Music is alive to novelties can be illustrated in no better way than by the fact that during the next three days he has added to his already large show one of the principal attractions of the Broadway theatre, Miss Marie Horton. Miss Horton has faithfully prepared a little vaudeville act which will, no doubt, meet the approval of her many friends in Lowell and those who already are aware of her versatility will be greatly and pleasantly surprised. In addition to this one of the greatest school acts ever placed on the stage will be a leading feature, while the Hatfield Stock company will produce "The New Judge," a screaming farce, with 10 characters in the cast. An extra good show will be played towards one of the best shows of the year.

STRANGLED TO DEATH Men Who Threw Bomb at Chinese Premier Were Executed

PEKING, Jan. 18.—The three men who were arrested after they had thrown the bomb at the carriage of Premier Yuan Shi Kai were strangled to death today by the public executioners. President Yuan Shi Kai attended today the memorial rites for the captain of his escort, who was killed by a splinter from the bomb. The premier has been granted three days' leave, ostensibly on account of indisposition arising from the excitement caused by the attempt on his life. It is thought, however, that the real reason is that he does not desire to attend the conference of the emperor's dowager and the princes of the imperial clan on the question of the abdication of the throne, which has been called at the imperial palace tomorrow.

FOUR OF DEFENDANTS On Trial in Connection With the Death of Mary Bolduc

BOSTON, Jan. 18.—When the case of that there would be but four defendants instead of five, as he had hoped, a West Roxbury house on the second floor of a criminal operation, began Battle Duxett of Boston. The other District Attorney Pelletier announced on trial, Miss Mary O'Neil of Manchester, N. H., and Mrs. Anna Reed of Boston, charged with being the principals and Dr. John Ferguson of Manchester and Mrs. Jennie Shattuck of Boston as accessories. The first witness was Miss Alice Ferguson, sister of Dr. Ferguson, who stated that so far as she knew her brother was not related to Miss O'Neil. Under cross examination Miss Ferguson said that she had heard that her brother was married to Miss O'Neil but three weeks ago Dr. Ferguson denied it. The importance of this testimony was shown by the statement of counsel at the recess that if Dr. Ferguson could be proved the husband of Miss O'Neil, the case against him could not be pressed.

CARDINAL IN TEARS

CARDINAL FARLEY

ST. PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL AT NIGHT

At Great Ovation That Was Tendered Him in New York

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—John, Cardinal Farley, who left for Rome nine weeks ago to be made a prince of the church, arrived in Manhattan yesterday afternoon. His home-coming was accompanied by the beating of drums, the playing of brass bands, the rattling of machine guns, and a police escort from the city of which he was a citizen, with the exception of a few distinguished exceptions, he received in this city for many decades.

Arriving at the Battery in midday, the cardinal was received by the great demonstration which was recorded him along the route of his carriage ride to St. Patrick's cathedral that tears filled his eyes when he stepped in the capital of the new office arrived at the cathedral.

"From it in my letters that I am glad to be home," he had said earlier in the day, while his boat, the steamer "Bertha," was waiting at the wharf.

It is estimated that three quarters of a million people saw the cardinal driven from the Battery to the cathedral, and that the crowd was so great that many who could not get in had to stand on the roof of the cathedral to see him.

As he was putting on his robe, the cardinal's eyes were filled with tears, and he said: "I have been away from this city for many years, and I am glad to be home."

He was then escorted to the cathedral, where he was received by the cardinal of the city, and the crowd again and again.

Cathedral Doors Swung Open

As the cardinal stepped from his carriage, the great doors of the cathedral swung open to receive him. He was then escorted to the cathedral, where he was received by the cardinal of the city, and the crowd again and again.

fatherly heart as to a loving son; and after hearing that voice which seemed to speak in tones of inspiration in the customary preaching in the world, the cardinal, denouncing the reforms of the church's enemies, I have returned with a confidence more full than ever before that God has placed in the chair of Peter a man after Christ's own heart to meet the needs of the time.

"Not only is that feeble old man calm and untroubled, but one sees that his profound faith is founded on the profound faith in the saints, strong as adamant in the belief that God is with him and his church as He had promised He would ever be."

On the conclusion of his address the cardinal descended from the throne, and kneeling, took part in the benediction of the blessed sacrament, the "Eucharist," being given by thousands of children, assisted by priests and seminarians hanked on the left side of the altar.

Cardinal Farley then pronounced the benediction and the organ pealed forth "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name."

AT CALVARY CHURCH

Principal Brodeur Lectured on Tennyson

Principal Clarence A. Brodeur of the Westfield State Normal school, entertained a large audience at the Calvary Baptist church last evening, with a two hours' lecture on Tennyson. The Calvary choir assisted in the evening's program and gave an excellent series of selections.

Mr. Brodeur gave much interesting information on the life work of the great poet. That the speaker has given Tennyson much study, and has a deep appreciation of the poet's masterpieces was evident by the expression which marked the recitations that he gave. He also gave an excellent explanation of the origin and purpose of the work.

The pathetic poem, "Break, Break, Break," written after the death of Tennyson's nearest friend, Arthur Henry Hallam, was recited with much feeling, and by contrast, "The Brook," with its merry rhythm, was revealed. "The Idylls of the King" gave Mr. Brodeur the greatest opportunity for dramatic expression, and added interest was given to his work by brief, though comprehensive, connecting links in the chain of recitations.

Tennyson music sung by Mrs. Daisy Ripley Duncan, Mrs. Horace R. Hanson, Louis Masson and Joseph Heathcote, proved a pleasing feature of the evening. The lecture-recital was one of the series of instructive entertainments in the "new departure" course.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

A first-class vaudeville entertainment provides genuine enjoyment to all, for it invariably meets the demands of the most exacting. At the Merrimack Square theatre patrons are never disappointed in the bill given from week to week and the one scheduled this week is up to the usual standard of the past.

Kum's Japs, equilibrist and musical artists, give a very clever act in which music and hand balancing are the contributing features. Strikingly handsome stage settings add to the quality of the piece. Burke's Musical Dogs give a new and novel animal act that's thoroughly enjoyable and pleasing to the eye.

Edie Hall are extremely funny in their original sketch and Duggan and Boyd have an offering of their own manufacture that's awfully good. EDDIE HERON, APPEARING AT KEITH'S THIS WEEK

KEITH'S LOWELL THEATRE

A program of infinite variety and such as should please the most fastidious critic is that offered at Keith's this week. Nothing in the singing has heard in Lowell this season can quite compare with the act contributed by Miss Josephine Iselin and two male assistants, tenor and baritone.

From grand opera to the X-ray flag and "O You Beautiful Doll," is the extent of their program, while not the least acceptable of their numbers is a medley of southern melodies. Mr. Eastman, the matinee comedian does a minstrel first part all by himself.

Singing 14 songs in as many minutes, and singing them too, and among the singers there's nothing slow about the Keaps, a clever colored couple. Willard's Temple of Music is a positively unique offering in the musical line, all instrumental and an unusual instrument, including the circular saw.

running by motor and with variegated electrical effects. Prof. De Dio's vaudeville circus is one of the most charming animal acts to be found anywhere. Zeno, Jordan and Zeno, aerialists, two men and a woman have a captivating act with a pleasing comedy feature. Eddie Heron and Miss Madge Douglas continue to make a big hit in Will Cross's prize sketch, "Jimmy Underwood's First Case," while the stunts are the kings of the Shadow curtain. Manager Stevens has made a ten strike in securing the celebrated Irish singers for the week of January 22 for whatever might have been said of the Irish players no adverse criticism of the Irish singers can be offered and their coming gracefully reflects the local impression made in many quarters by the Irish players.

The Irish singers sing the old songs of Ireland and dance the old time dances, accompanied by the song writer in "The Kerry Dancer."

DEATH SENTENCE

Of Silas N. Phelps Will Stand

BOSTON, Jan. 18.—Silas N. Phelps, murderer of Deputy Sheriff Emmett Haskins must die in the electric chair, probably early Monday morning. After an informal discussion in the executive council yesterday afternoon, the council decided to formally present the petition for commutation of Phelps' sentence from death to life imprisonment.

Governor Foss pleaded in vain in behalf of the convicted man, and on finding that arguments would not change the opinion of the council, the council decided that he would not push the matter any further. No vote of any kind was taken, as the governor, after talking with the members of the executive council, knew practically what the result would be. Following the refusal of the executive council of 1911 to act favorably on the question of commutation of Phelps' sentence, Governor Foss granted the prisoner a reprieve until midnight, Jan. 20. This was done in order that Governor Foss might present the question of changing the sentence to the newly elected council.

Dudley M. Holman, secretary to the governor, in a statement last evening said: "After an informal discussion in the council, in regard to the Phelps case, the governor decided not to formally present the case to them again." Warden Bridges, who is in charge of the state prison, will begin today to make arrangements for the execution. The chair in the death room will be thoroughly tested and the witnesses summoned in the next few days.

SLEIGH RIDE

ENJOYABLE PARTY HELD BY HALL & LYON CO'S CLERKS

The clerks of the Hall & Lyon Drug Co. held a very enjoyable sleigh-ride party last evening. The clerks left the store in Merrimack street at 8:30 o'clock in the large four horse sleigh, General Sherman. The merry party was bound for North Billerica, and the trip to the latter town was a pleasant one. The destination of the party was Smith's farmhouse. Upon their arrival at the Smiths' they were met by a petting lunch prepared by the young lady clerks of the store was served. During the disposition of the evening, music was furnished by an orchestra led by A. W. Churchill and A. W. Dyer. Songs and stories followed. Waiting at the Church by Fred Burns, the "New Year's Letter" made a distinctive hit. Jack Guiney sang in a clever manner "My Heart," John Percival "got" everybody with "Old Black Joe," while "Charlie Trembley" did a great stunt with "I'm Going Crazy." Selections were given by the Hall & Lyon quartet, composed of John Percival, the genial soda clerk, "Charlie" Burns, the cigar department, John Guiney, also of the cigar department, and Charles Corcoran, of the drugs. William Kelley, the district window dresser and a frequent visitor in town, gave a song that was well appreciated. Flash light photos were taken by Harry Livingston of the photo department and the return trip was commenced at an early hour. Upon the party's return to this city all voted it a grand success.

The hosts of home were assigned to the members of Capt. James J. Donnelly's team, who were successful in capturing the beautiful trophy donated by Mr. Louis K. Swan. Next to them were the members of Capt. John Quinn's team who finished in second place.

After the inner men had had a satisfactory Mr. James J. Donnelly, acting as toastmaster, called to order, congratulated the victors and also spoke of the efforts of the other bowlers.

After the opening speech the toastmaster introduced many of those present who entertained with various songs and speeches. ### ROBBED OF $913

MAN SAYS THAT THREE MEN ATTACKED HIM

BOSTON, Jan. 18.—Nicholas De Santi was beaten and robbed of $913 in the vestibule of his home at 23 Allen street, West End, yesterday afternoon as he was returning from the Suffolk Savings bank. He is drawing the money. He was attacked by three men, two of whom held and struck him while the other searched his clothing until the money was found.

A few hours afterward Special Officer Ramsey of Division 3 arrested, on the charge of robbery, James Friedman, 21 years old, who said he lived at 32 Spring street. De Santi identified Friedman as one of his assailants. A search of Friedman failed to reveal any money.

Two weeks ago De Santi decided to draw his money from the bank and return to Italy. The bank officials required a two weeks' notice. Shortly before noon yesterday De Santi and his landlady went to the bank. De Santi got the money and went home.

In the vestibule, he says, he met Friedman coming downstairs. Friedman, he says, was coming to live in the house and while they were talking he was attacked. The men then ran away and De Santi went to the Joy street police station.

GIRLS HYSTERICAL

POLICE PREVENT PANIC AT FIRE IN BOSTON

BOSTON, Jan. 18.—Three girls became hysterical and a number of persons were terror-stricken, following the discovery of a fire in the building numbered 17-19-21 Lane street, about 6:30 o'clock last night.

The presence of St. James Laffey and Patrolmen King and Buckley only prevented a stampede among 25 women employees of the Western Union Telegraph company, on the third and fourth floors of the building, which are used as the bookkeeping department of that company.

The girls who required assistance were Sadie Cameron, Helen Mountain and Margaret Farrell.

There was no immediate danger, as the fire was confined to the first floor where it started. This floor was occupied by the Mansfield Cracker Co.

The blaze was attributed to overloaded steam pipes. A damage of about $2500 resulted.

THE PETERS BILL

Providing for Child Bureau Recommended

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The house committee on labor yesterday reported unanimously Representative Peters' bill to create in the department of commerce and labor a children's bureau for the study of all questions relating to childhood.

It is estimated that the cost of the bureau will be less than $50,000 a year, which the committee contrasts with large expenditures for the collection of information relating to child labor and child life by the department of agriculture.

The bureau will pay particular attention to statistics on child labor, infant mortality, delinquency and illiteracy.

A similar bill has been introduced in the senate by Senator Borah of Idaho. "The children's bureau should be an authoritative source of information concerning all questions relating to childhood," says the report of the house committee, "to the end that human life and health be preserved and human misery decreased. It seems to us no more inconsistent with the principles of this government that we should be able to send out bulletins concerning the care of fish, or of hogs or cattle, and the preservation of fruit trees or the treatment of the soil."

The committee report states that no opposition to the bill has developed, but that instead the measure is supported by the American Federation of Labor and many organizations and persons interested in charity and sociological work.

ANNUAL SUPPER

Held at the High Street Church Last Night

The annual supper of the High Street church and society was held last night in the church vestries.

There was a large attendance, about 200 people being present. An excellent supper was served and good speaking was enjoyed. The toastmaster of the evening was Major Charles A. Stott, who as usual carried out his part of the program in his own peculiar way.

His witty sayings were well received and at times were loudly applauded. The addresses made during the evening were of a serious nature, dealing principally with the necessity of a closer connection of the various churches of the Protestant churches.

The speakers were Major Stott, Rev. Selden W. Cummings of the First Baptist church, Rev. Clarence R. Skinner of the Grace Universalist church, Carl D. Hurl, Mrs. Charles A. Stott, Deacon Albert L. Bacheller, and Rev. Allan Conant Farrin.

Rev. Mr. Cummings spoke on the modern tendency of the churches to get together and co-operate. Carl D. Hurl, spoke for the prudential committee calling attention to the fact that so far as finances are concerned the church had just ended a very successful year. He urged co-operation of the members of the church and society in making the present year more successful.

Mrs. Charles A. Stott, president of the Women's Aid society, responded briefly and eloquently, expressing her feeling that the church needs the women and that the women respond to the demands unselfishly for the good of the church. She said the thanks of the prudential committee to the women came at a time when the church ideas and preaching had in women would appreciate it to the fullest extent.

Deacon Bacheller spoke on Congregationalism of today as exemplified in High Street church and showed briefly some of the historic features of the church's record.

Rev. Clarence R. Skinner made a most instances remained fairly stationary through this period.

Rev. A. C. Ferrin, the pastor, was the final speaker and he congratulated the church on its progress and spoke in complimentary vein of the co-operation of the church.

The musical portion of the program was furnished by the church quartet under the direction of Edward E. Adams. Miss Rose Fish sang a soprano solo and Warren T. Reid gave two bass solos. The other member of the quartet was Mrs. H. N. Peabody. Mrs. E. G. Dumas was the accompanist.

THE LUMBER KING

Has a Large Reciprocity Pact in View

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Harry J. Crowe, New Foundland's lumber king, is in New York to stimulate interest in what he calls a larger reciprocity pact which shall include not only the United States and Canada but the entire British empire. Mr. Crowe bears letters from public men both in America and in England favoring the plan. In a statement of his purpose he says: "The verdict of the Canadians in connection with President Taft's proposed reciprocity pact implied a strong desire to give the mother country a preference over all other nations, however, tempting or alluring their offers may be. It would, therefore, seem wise for the United States while the door is open to enter into a larger reciprocity pact embracing all the English speaking peoples, the United States, Great Britain and all her colonies, instead of Canada alone."

The bayonet is a dangerous weapon and should not be used except in cases of the most urgent necessity.

Governor Foss or the state board of arbitration and conciliation should interpose to have the Lawrence strike settled by arbitration. The longer it continues the worse for all concerned.

The proposition to change the date of inauguration day from March 4 to the last Thursday in April is a good one. March 4 is too stormy to permit of open air exercises without great risk to the health of all who take part. The change if made would not take effect before 1917.

Federal immigration officials are in Lawrence to find if the alien contract law was violated by any of the corporations in bringing out aliens to work in some of the mills. Ever since the big Wood mill opened there have been rumors that immigrants were induced to come here from Europe by extravagant promises of steady employment at big wages. The matter should be investigated to the bottom in order to find whether the rumors are founded on fact.

THE MINIMUM WAGE SCALE

The report of the commission appointed to consider the minimum wage scale of women has made a very instructive investigation of the conditions under which women work in different factories, and of the rate of wages paid in the occupations investigated. The wage schedules gathered show the earnings of many thousands of persons in various establishments and a considerable number of localities. The employees of cotton mills, their work and their wages were duly considered. The rather surprising statement is made by the commission and borne out by the facts that 41 per cent. of the candy workers, 10.2 per cent. of the sales women, 15.1 per cent. of the laundry workers and 23 per cent. of the cotton workers earn less than $5.00 per week, and that respectively 67.2 per cent., 29.5 per cent., 40.7 per cent. and 37.6 per cent. of them earn less than $6.00 a week. The conditions found by the commission seem to justify the conclusions that something should be done to prohibit unsafe conditions of labor or a lower than "a living wage."

The report states that legislation would bring employers to a realization of their public responsibilities, and result in the best adjustment of the interests of employment and of the women employees. The report also contends that the new law would prevent the imposition upon helpless women, do away with sweat shops, diminish the parasitic character of some industries and lessen the burden now resting on other employments. It would also tend to cause employers to develop the efficiency of their employees in order that the wages might not be incommensurate with the services rendered, and it would protect helpless women from imposition that is now practiced upon them because there is no law to prevent it, although the injustice is in many cases sufficiently flagrant to call for a prompt remedy.

The law recommended by this commission is largely based upon enactments now in operation in Australia, New Zealand and England, and it would be a new departure in this country if it went into effect for the protection of women who are obliged to earn their living as best they can.

It is not the custom for the state to fix wages, but the present case seems to call for some action fixing a wage limit. The result might increase the prices of some commodities for there are manufacturers, wholesale and retail dealers who often take advantage of the slightest pretext to increase prices.

TO WIPE OUT THE TEMPORARY LOAN

The proposition of Commissioner Barrett to go to the legislature for authority to contract a loan of $500,000 to help wipe out the $700,000 temporary loan that has accumulated from past administrations as far back as 1896, offers one solution of the problem. One point to be considered in regard to this matter is, what assets have we standing against this $700,000? In 1909 there was about $688,000 in uncollected taxes, $140,000 of which was said to be uncollectable. In 1910 it appeared that there was over $700,000 in tax bills outstanding, of which $150,000 was set down as uncollectable.

At the present time the city owes about $700,000 of what is known as a temporary debt that has accumulated in past years as a result of the policy of spending the entire appropriation and leaving part of the temporary loan unpaid in lieu of taxes that were uncollectable. Administrations in the past have also used part of the temporary loan to piece out appropriations toward the end of the year. That helped to swell the amount that is now to be met in the most acceptable way.

The present proposition seems to be one of collecting the taxes that are collectable. If that be done there will not be $700,000 remaining nor half that amount. It is up to the commissioner on finance apparently or in fact to the municipal board as a whole to deal with this matter in a proper manner. Some cities give only one year of grace to delinquent taxpayers, and sell their property if the taxes are unpaid at the end of the first year overdue. The city of Lowell has been accustomed to allow two years to elapse before advertising the property for sale for unpaid taxes. This, of course, leaves a considerable amount of collectable taxes running from year to year, and it largely explains why this temporary loan cannot be entirely paid off with the money that is due the city. Still it should be quite feasible for the city treasurer to collect half the amount of that loan. When that shall have been done the municipal board will then have a less formidable problem to solve in regard to wiping out this temporary loan and starting the new policy by which there shall be no such accumulation in the future. It would be unfair to have the burden of clearing off this temporary debt fall entirely upon the people in any one year and equally wrong to extend it over a long period of years.

It is not advisable to go to the legislature for permission to borrow outside the debt limit if we can possibly avoid it. If we clean up our uncollected taxes it will then be time enough to resort to this extreme to meet whatever remains of this temporary loan.

NO CHANCE FOR THE RUNT IN THAT LITTER.

SEEN AND HEARD

Urgle, a prominent member of the Guard, of this city, was the subject of a rather good joke last Monday when the local militia was summoned to Lawrence. After the military signal had been given, a crowd of Urgle met him on his street and asked him why he was not in Lawrence, for all the local guards had been summoned to the town river city. Urgle, looking as to the price being paid to the militia and after being informed it was $200 per day, he made up his mind he would go, and he immediately rushed to the guard headquarters for his uniform. Urgle was a very astonished man when upon reaching the guard room, he saw his captain playing cards. "Good afternoon, captain," said Urgle, "why are you not in Lawrence?" "What for, responded the captain?" "Why, to help the other soldiers to maintain peace," replied Urgle. "You may go if you want," said the captain, "but I would advise you to trade your wooden gun for a real one before you go against the strikers." It was at this point that Urgle discovered he was the object of a joke.

The writer dropped into a local firm marked the other day and was just in time to see a delicate operation. One of the clerks was seated on a chair and had the proprietor's left foot in his lap. The clerk had a large knife and was cutting a corn from the foot. "The doctor" was doing a good job, but the clerk slipped and cut the "proprietor" big toe. The latter said a few things and just to console him the scribbler said "well, the scribbler, strange to relate, escaped without injury."

L. R. Sherwood, democratic representative from Ohio, tells this story: A man had for years employed a steady German workman. One day Jake came to him and asked to be excused from work the next day. "Certainly, Jake," answered the employer. "What are you going to do?" "Well," said Jake, slowly, "I think I must go to my wife's funeral. She dies yesterday."

After the lapse of a few weeks Jake again approached the boss for a day off. "All right, Jake, but what are you going to do this time?" "Ah," said Jake, "I'm to marry me, mit me in freedom, a wedding."

"What? So soon? Why, it's been only three weeks since you buried your wife?" "Ach," replied Jake, "I don't hold spite long."

The cold weather is coming on, and we shall soon see some very remarkable cold weather motorist suits. The speaker sat in his New York office. He resumed: "I'll be glad when cold weather motorist suits are made more sightly. They give you a shaggy look now, don't they? Did you know?"

What Makes a Woman? One hundred and twenty pounds, more or less, of bone and muscle don't make a woman. It's a good foundation, but into it health and strength and the mind make a woman. But that's just what Electric Bitters give you. Thousands bless them for overcoming fainting and dizzy spells and for dispelling weakness, nervousness, headache, and tired, listless, worn-out feeling. Did you ever hear about the performing bear? "Well, a country hotel, a good deal frequented by motorists, took in a showman and his performing bear, and one morning the bear escaped from the stable. "Everybody fled before the animal. The hotel man, however, pursued it courageously. It entered the hotel, mounted the stairs, pushed open a bedroom door and vanished. "Then the hotel man, close behind, heard from the bedroom an angry explanation in a feminine voice and the words: "George, dear, how often have I forbidden you to come into my room without knocking, and in your automobile coat, too?"

Despite the fact that coasting on the public streets of this city is prohibited, the youngsters who reside in Centralville are willing to take a chance with the police officers as well as the electric cars and other vehicles, and at the present time are enjoying winter time coasting in Third, Sixth, Tenth and Eleventh streets. The best coasting is on Sixth street, for there is a slight dip away from the reservoir to Sixth street. Some of the coasters turn into North street while others go to the coast and turn into Bond street. The principal danger is from the electric cars at Beach street and the skating which may be traveling through the many interesting streets. The coasters on the Christian Hill have been cautioned to be on the lookout for coasters and it is due to the fact that the youngsters have not been injured.

There should be a law passed to compel persons to remove the pictures from the gutters of their buildings especially in the center of the city. The writer has noticed that there are many buildings throughout the city, especially in the center of the city, which have pictures of the Virgin Mary and other religious figures in the gutters of their buildings.

The professor was examining a dark-brown substance spread on paper when he was interrupted by a visit from a friend. "I say, would you kindly let me place a little bit of this on your tongue?" said the man of learning to the newcomer; "my taste has become so vitiated by sampling all sorts of things." "Certainly," responded the friend, thrusting out his tongue. The professor took up a little of the substance under analysis and placed it on the other's tongue. The latter worked it round for fully a minute, tasting it much as he would a sweet. "Note any effect?" inquired the professor. "No, none." "It doesn't paralyze nor prick your tongue?" "Not that I can detect." "I thought not. How does it taste?" "Very bitter." "Oh, my! all right." "What is it?" inquired the friend. "I don't know. That's what I'm trying to find out. Some one has been poisoning horses with it."

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Lynn News: The churches of this country have gone into all sorts of schemes save the preaching of the gospel of salvation to arouse interest among the people. But quiet, sedate Philadelphia deserves the palm for originality in this respect. During the week a Methodist Episcopal congregation had some interesting boxing bouts within its walls and the minister and society leaders were there to see fair play and enjoy themselves. Wonder if the fellow who got the first wallop on the jaw turned the other cheek to the smiter?

GOV WILSON'S WEARINESS. New York Post: No wonder that republicans say that Governor Wilson will not do. He violates all our precedents. He does not write at the bottom "Burn this letter." And when the letter is published, he does not say that its recipient is an infamous liar, nor proceed to prove by other letters that the friend to whom he wrote is a horse-thief.

OUR NATURAL PRODUCTS. Toronto Globe: We could make the growing of oranges in Canada an important industry by levying prohibitive duties on foreign oranges. But it pays far better to grow grain, and make dairy products and raise cattle, and catch fish, and fell trees, and saw lumber, and trade any of them in return for oranges. Nations have natural aptitudes just as individuals have natural aptitudes.

POOL FOR A DAY. Brockton Times: John J. McNeill, the Wilkes-Barre man who yesterday commanded $2500, which was all he was owner of, in an attempt to play the role of a millionaire for a day, is either an individual requiring the services of a guardian or one whose astuteness is greater than that of the average mortal.

LOWELL BOY

ORDAINED TO THE MINISTRY AT DES MOINES

William Bass Leonard, grandson of Dr. William Bass of this city, and himself a former Lowell boy, was ordained to the Christian ministry at Des Moines, Iowa, the officiating clergyman being Rev. James Smith, evangelist, and Rev. H. E. Van Horn, evangelist of the Capitol Hill Christian church of the latter city. Rev. Mr. Leonard is widely known here, being affiliated with the First Baptist church of this city. On account of his exceptional qualifications, Mr. Leonard has made rapid strides in the Evangelistic field. He is a graduate of the Moody grammar school, attended Lowell High, and took studies in theology at Boston university. At the present time Mr. Leonard is considering a call to a church in Florida, where he has recently been looking over the field.

MANY NEW PLAYERS

Will Report to Baseball Managers for Coming Season

The baseball season is drawing near and hence much good news regarding the players who will furnish enjoyment to the hungry fans next season is being received. All the teams report great things for the coming season and claim that all the weak spots have been tightened up. Of course similar assertions were made last season, but from the preponderance of material secured by most of the clubs some of the finds should prove able to fill in the loose places. Some of the latest dope is appended.

The directors of the Pacific Coast Baseball league at their annual meeting in Los Angeles, adopted a schedule and decided to number all players. According to plans agreed upon each player will wear on his left sleeve a number assigned to him. This number also will appear upon the score card. Thus, when a player is replaced, or when until the game starts there is doubt as to who will play any position, reference to the score card will show the spectator who the player is.

Clarence (Ringer) Beaumont, the former Pittsburgh, Boston and Chicago National league outfielder, and in his day one of the greatest hitters that ever stepped to the plate, will coach the University of Chicago baseball team this spring, according to an announcement given out last night by Manager Wiley.

Word received from the Pacific coast states that Manager Frank Chance will start on the spring training trip in February with the Cubs, but will join his team in New Orleans about March 3. Chance is promoting the erection of an office building in Glendora, Cal.

Jack Phelan of Providence has been sold to Ulen of the New York State league. Several days ago Mike O'Neil, manager of the team, wired Manager Lase asking his price for Phelan and was given a figure low enough to ensure the sale, but the price was given with the proviso that the Providence club should have its pick of the Ulen team on the last day that players can be sold for the sum of $1500. It may be that there will be no games at Ulen's before the coming summer as the new owners declare they cannot see their way clear to hold the grounds which have existed for the past four or five years. There must be a number of concessions on the part of the owners of the grounds, they say, and assurances given that will warrant the club going to a considerable expense in fixing up the grounds and on other rebuilding of the stands and bleachers. The club will not impose such recommendations on the public as have existed for several seasons and if things cannot be improved the club will cut out Sunday baseball at Providence entirely.

Jack Lewis, the clever young second baseman of the Boston Red Sox, has the record for turning in the first scored run under the James A. McAdoo administration. Lewis played second base most of the time the last five weeks of the season and at a time when the home club was putting up winning ball.

There are more than 40 entries for the amateur boxing tournament to be held by the U. S. A. The trial bouts will be held tonight and the members will see some good sport.

Tom Tracy, the Australian boxer, who was knocked out by Joe Walcott at old Music Hall, is now the boxing instructor at the Multnomah club at Portland, Ore., succeeding Tommy Ryan.

"Porky" Flynn had the first joint of the finger that he broke in his battle with Jimmy Barry at the Aragon. A. removed in Australia after his first battle in that country. It was on account of that finger that Flynn showed so poorly in his battle there.

CHANTECLER GIRLS
The Chantecler girls held an enjoyable dancing party in O. U. A. M. hall, Tuesday evening. The affair like its predecessors was grand success in every particular. The young ladies in charge of the affair were dressed in red costumes. The hall was beautifully decorated with red pennants and flags of the various colleges. During the evening the lights were shaded and produced a very pleasing effect. A very entertaining feature of the evening was the "Leap Year Waltz," which made a decided hit. At intermission refreshments were served after which dancing was resumed and continued until midnight. Upon departing, the young people all congratulated the girls of the Chantecler club. Among the guests were Misses Anna Latham, Diana Cline, Mary and Lena Lamoureux for the enjoyable time had and the entire success of the affair.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Now that Matt McGrath, the policeman-athlete, has announced that he will surely accompany the American team to Sweden next June, the Yankee aggregation is assured of several points. Until recently he was not certain of being able to go abroad owing to business reasons. McGrath has a tight hold on the sixteen pound hammer and the fifty-six pound weight titles and appears a sure winner in these events.

With the necessary amount of work, the youngster is sure to be a valuable player for the Boston infield.

President McAleer has practically closed the deal with Jersey City for pitcher Bodiet, the former New England catcher, turning over several good players for the young pitcher.

Louis Pieper, manager of the local club has given up all hope of securing Young Kopf to play third base for the Fall River club last year and who was considered the best man in the league at the hot corner. Pieper tried to get him the worst way but, he couldn't offer enough inducements. Pieper offered Catterson and Crisman to New Haven for Kopf but New Haven would not consider the deal.

New Haven intends to keep the youngster for its own club. He was only loaned to Fall River last year. He played a whiffing game at third base. The Providence club of the International league is after the lad also.

ARE TRAINING HARD

Gallant and Flynn in Fine Condition

Johnny Gallant, the clever little boxer, who is to appear at the Lowell Social and Athletic club at its meeting next Friday evening, is training hard for the bout. He is to meet Edward Flynn of Lynn and feels that if he succeeds in defeating the latter he will get a chance to clash with some of the ones Gallant has many friends here and also the hope that he has been secured for the meeting Friday night.

Flynn has a record of 37 consecutive victories. He has also boxed two draws with Gallant. In these contests both put up clever exhibitions and they would go on to see the pair at it again. In the semi-final Young Buster of Pawtucket, R. I. and Harold Ditson of Weymouth will meet. Young Buster is a colored boy and is very clever with his paws. Ditson is said to be very handy with his fists and this should be a good one. The preliminary will interest Bostonians of this city and Young Sandov of Chicago. Both are confident of victory and each is putting in a lot of work for the bout.

BOXING GOSSIP

Charley White of Chicago and Willie Gibbs will clash in Memphis January 22.

"Brooklyn" Tommy Sullivan and Eddie Randall will box in St. Louis January 22.

"Cyclone" Thompson's style of boxing is not liked by the Australian authorities.

Young Schwartz, who is known here as Eddie White, will face Paul Sikora at Cleveland, January 25.

Gilbert Gallant and Terry Brooks of New York are entered for a bout at Adams next Friday night.

The Manchester, N. H. fans will see some good boxing tonight, when three all-star bouts will be staged there.

Patsy Corrigan, the veteran Australian boxer, well known here as conducting a boxing club in Oklahoma city.

Jimmy Britt, who has seen Bombardier Wells in action, says that Wells has a lot to learn about the game and that he would be easy game for Jack Johnson.

There are more than 40 entries for the amateur boxing tournament to be held by the U. S. A. The trial bouts will be held tonight and the members will see some good sport.

Tom Tracy, the Australian boxer, who was knocked out by Joe Walcott at old Music Hall, is now the boxing instructor at the Multnomah club at Portland, Ore., succeeding Tommy Ryan.

"Porky" Flynn had the first joint of the finger that he broke in his battle with Jimmy Barry at the Aragon. A. removed in Australia after his first battle in that country. It was on account of that finger that Flynn showed so poorly in his battle there.

There were four good games played in the City Pool tournament last night and there was a good gallery at each place where the games were played and considerable enthusiasm was displayed. The scores were as follows:

At Hurd street:
Pierce ..... 25 15 25 12
Richter ..... 7 18 21 0 10
At Cur's:

CHANTECLER GIRLS
The Chantecler girls held an enjoyable dancing party in O. U. A. M. hall, Tuesday evening. The affair like its predecessors was grand success in every particular. The young ladies in charge of the affair were dressed in red costumes. The hall was beautifully decorated with red pennants and flags of the various colleges. During the evening the lights were shaded and produced a very pleasing effect. A very entertaining feature of the evening was the "Leap Year Waltz," which made a decided hit. At intermission refreshments were served after which dancing was resumed and continued until midnight. Upon departing, the young people all congratulated the girls of the Chantecler club. ### NASHUA BOWLERS

Put it All Over Lowell Men Last Night

The third of the series of games to be played between the Lowell and Nashua bowlers was held on the alleys in the upper city last night and "we" got the life triumphed out of us. There was nothing to it but Nashua from the start to the finish. It was a bad night for the local boys for their bowling was off color, none of them being able to touch the 300 mark, while on the other hand, Mitchell and Plante of the Nashua team, traveled away over the three hundred mark.

The game between the Foremen and the Club Room teams of the Tremont & Suffolk league resulted in a victory for the Foremen. French was the star performer of the evening despite the fact that his score was not very high.

The Hoskey took all four points from the Dress Room team in their game. McDermott of the winning team with a single of 130 and total of 302 was high man.

THE ITALIAN TROOPS

Are Using Balloons for Sending Messages

TRIPOLI, Jan. 18.—The Italian soldiers here have been using a captive balloon for the display of signals, and it has worked successfully. High in the air the flags attached below the gas bag can be shifted up and down and can be seen by signal corps men at long distances. In a country where the telephone and telegraph service is meager this is a great saving of time.

FLYNN WON BOUT

Williams Knocked Out in Second Round

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 18.—Fitzman Jim Flynn of Poughkeepsie, Jack Johnson's next contender for the championship of the world, added another to his long list of victories last night, when he made short work of Al Williams, a Cleveland boxer, knocking him out in the second round of a scheduled 10-round battle under the auspices of the National Sporting association.

The bout was fought under Marquis of Queensbury rules, and Flynn went right after his man from the sound of the bell. They moved it from the start, and Williams showed up well in the first two minutes, but the Poughkeepsie man then succeeded in landing heavy shortarm jabs to the face, and the Cleveland boxer went to the mat for a count of six, the best saving him.

Williams appeared to be much straggled, but shortly after the round opened Flynn landed a tremendous swing to the jaw, putting his opponent out cold. Flynn's weight was 155 pounds, or 15 pounds under that of his opponent.

A number of the local experts who witnessed the bout are of the opinion that, although Flynn is the best heavyweight in America after Johnson, he will be no match for the champion, who was expected to be at the ring-side, but was unable to be present owing to a death in his wife's family.

Jack Curry, Flynn's manager, stated that the bout was the last before his appearance of the fighter before his bout with Johnson next July.

Police watched the contest closely, as the officers of the club are to be brought into court, charged with conducting a prize fight.

CONLEY DEFEATED LEWIS

MANCHESTER, N. H., Jan. 18.—In the fourth round of a scheduled ten-round journey, the backers of Billy Lewis of Concord tossed a towel into the ring and saved their man from further punishment in his fight with Mark Conley of Boston. Both boxers gave a stirring exhibition in the first round, which went to Lewis by a slender margin. It was his only round, however, as Conley, having apparently taken his opponent's measure, easily outpointed him in the next two.

The fourth round had gone two minutes when Conley dropped Lewis. Lewis took the count of nine and then the towel was displayed.

Bob Lefavor of Brockton, Mass., bested George Perry of Boston in a lively bout. Perry's finger was broken midway of the contest. In the closing event Joe Eagan of Boston and Young Ahern of Manchester went to a draw.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE

Took Up the Matter of New Rules and Heard Suggestions

The appearance of a committee of teachers at a meeting of the school committee held last night was most a taste of "things different" under the new form of government. The meeting was held by the committee on rules and the committee on rules, Mrs. A. C. Foss, and other committee members under the new arrangement of things, is a committee of the whole. The committee of teachers represented the Teachers' association and they had suggestions to offer relative to the rules. Speaking to the teachers Chairman Farrington said that the school committee would gladly welcome any suggestions that they might offer. He said that one of the great aims of the committee was to co-operate with the teachers in order to obtain the best results. He said the committee had the welfare of the children, the citizens of the future, in mind and at heart and he knew that the interest of the teachers in the children, because of their acquaintance with them and love for them, was even greater than that of the committee.

The work of the committee on rules is to make the necessary changes in the law and arrange for the committee work. The rules will be taken up section by section and while a number of changes will be made most of the old rules will be allowed to stand.

The teachers offered a few suggestions one of which was that while the matters referred to by them might seem small to the committee they meant a great deal to the teachers. Supt. Whitcomb was present and joined in the discussion. The members of the board took notes and asked questions.

One of the suggestions offered by the teachers had to do with loss of pay in case of sickness of a member of the teacher's family, compelling her to remain away from school. Under a former rule, teachers were allowed five days with part pay. The teachers would like a restoration of that rule, or some such arrangement. They claim that a teacher who supports herself and her mother cannot afford to lose her whole pay when compelled to remain away because of her mother's sickness. Twenty days, with half pay, is allowed for the teacher's own sickness, but they would like the five-day rule restored as well to cover cases such as the one referred to.

They ask also to have the stern signal sounded a little earlier, claiming that teachers living some distance from their schools often have to leave home being uncertain as to whether the signal will be rung.

MARRIAGE INTENTIONS

EVENING SCHOOLS

Assigned to Members of the Board

The following letter sent out from the office of the superintendent of schools to the teachers of the public schools is self explanatory:

Office of the Supt. of Schools,
Lowell, Jan. 18, 1912
To Teachers, Lowell Public Schools:

The school committee, at a meeting held last night, voted to have the afternoon session of your schools begin at 1:31 o'clock and close at 4:15 o'clock, on and after Monday next, until further notice.

This change was made at the suggestion of some of your number, and with the idea that if the general good is subserved thereby the hours named may remain, without change, throughout the year. At the same time the committee will be glad to know from you, individually or collectively, how these hours suit your pupils and their parents, and whether any other arrangement would give greater satisfaction.

Very truly yours,
A. K. Whitcomb,
Supt. of Schools.

The committee from the Teachers' association which attended the meeting of committee on rules last evening and who suggested the change in hours, included Miss Billings of the Elliot school, Miss Cheney of the Harbottle school, Miss Dwyer of the Varian school, Miss Lee of the Lyon street school, Miss Benson of the Bond street school and Miss Gray of the Highland school.

Evening Schools Assigned
School Committee: McKenzle, chairman of the evening school committee.

THE MARKET BUILDING

the police electrician, two in number, the room of the liquor inspectors, a repair room and a bedroom.

On the second floor the county occupies the two court rooms, the two rooms devoted to the clerk of courts, the judge's office and the office of the probation officer. On this floor also is the Tappan Wentworth library which belongs to the city, under the will of the late Tappan Wentworth would properly come under the charge of the buildings department.

No Lease With County
At the present time the county of Middlesex pays the city an annual rental of $2400 for the use of building for court purposes, but the police department is paying for the water, lighting and heating of the part used by the county which in a year amounts to a considerable sum. The rental paid for the use of the building by the county goes into the general treasury fund and the police department gets no benefit from it.

As far as can be learned the county and city have no agreement in writing as to the rental of the building. Assistant City Clerk McCarthy recently spent several days looking for a lease but found none. Judge Hoar, whose memory is as reliable as some records recalls that a long time ago a verbal agreement was made relative to the rental but he is not aware of the existence of any written lease.

Going way back over 50 years, Assistant City Clerk McCarthy found that in 1859, the city council authorized the committee on lands and buildings to fix the rent of the police court building with the state, the state then paying for the court houses. In February 1896, the city received an annual rental of $2500 from the county for the building. On May 4, 1896, the committee on lands and buildings voted that the superintendent of buildings confer with police commissioners with a view to increasing the rent of the police court room. In 1897 the city received $2400 for the year's rent and the city council decided to increase the rent to $2500 for the year 1898.

The auditor in searching the records fails to find any record of any rental having been paid in the years 1894 and 1895.

No record has as yet been disclosed to show that the building is or ever has been insured against fire.

The Mayor's Proposition
Mayor O'Donnell is of the opinion that a more systematic method of running the building should be evolved. He does not believe that the police department's appropriation should be used to furnish heat and light for the buildings department for the county. The police department now furnishes light for the entire building including the corridors and furnishes fuel for the boilers although employees of another department have the care of the boilers. It is customary for the tenant to pay for his light and fuel, but the police department is paying for the light and fuel of the county which is fixed a tenant, and for the buildings department which is fixed a tenant.

These responsible for the affair were Messrs. Honer L. P. Turcotte and Ernest Dupont, Dr. Adeline Payette acted as master of ceremonies.

AT NO. CHELMSFORD

Supt. Welch to Address Catholic Club

North Chelmsford is quite active at the present time. Many of the social organizations are preparing for coming affairs. The church societies are also very busy, especially the ones connected with St. John's church. In political circles, however, activity is conspicuous by its absence.

A meeting of the Mass club was held in St. John's hall last evening. The meeting opened at 7 o'clock. There was a large attendance. Instructions were given and reports read, the latter showing the good work accomplished by the members during the past year. The regular meeting of the Mass club is held in St. John's hall on the first of the month. The next meeting will be held on the first of the month. The club is a most successful organization. For the remaining winter some well known orators have been secured.

The new steam heating plant has been installed in the St. John's hall. The plant is the gift of Supt. Mark Ingraham of the Silesia Worsted company. Other improvements will be made on the building as soon as the weather conditions are favorable.

Cutting Ice
The Boston ice company has a large plant of men, in charge of Supt. David Ward, at work today cutting ice. Work was started Monday, but the storm caused a delay. Today, however, the men resumed work, and say if weather conditions are good, a large crop will be harvested.

PROBABLY DROWNED

Young Couple Missing
Since Tuesday

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The police today are dragging "chase Chase" for the bodies of Norman and Margaret Kauffman, a high school girl of the same age, who are believed to have been drowned under the ice. A muffled and found on the ice and later identified as belonging to Miss Kauffman led to the theory that the couple had been drowned while they left the girl's home together Tuesday evening. Some of the friends of the young people discredited the drawing idea, thinking they have eloped and will be heard from soon.

LAWRENCE STRIKE

New York organizer of the Industrial Workers of the World, who has directed the strike, at a meeting held in the state attorney here, Editor agreed to the suggested plan for the most part, but could not be prevailed upon then to agree definitely to accept it. Mr. Mitchell hastened here last night and worked among the strikers and their leaders until an early hour this morning.

The strikers met him in a pleasing spirit and it is believed that ultimately he cleared up all points on which there might develop serious objections to an agreement by either side. He held a short conference with Col. Sweetzer at the attorney's office this morning, following which he went to Boston to report to Gov. Boss. Simultaneously with the conference with the strikers, meetings were held by other mediators with President Wood of the American Woolen company and other mill officials in Boston and Lawrence. These conferences had a favorable result and the mill owners were brought into line.

According to information from reliable sources, the mill owners, who had agreed to have a grant of the strikers original demands for the payment of 56 hours' wages for the 34 hours' work which is allowed under the new law.

Mills Reopened
All the mills were reopened with the exception of the Everett cotton mill and the Lawrence duck mill. It was believed that the latter mill would open today but the operatives who appeared at the gates shortly before the hour for opening were informed by the executives that work will be resumed in all departments tomorrow forenoon.

One arrest was made in the early hours of the forenoon. Felix Yunko, alias, whom the police charged with intimidation and obstructing the sidewalk was arrested in front of the Thompson International Paper mill.

Although it was reported that Lawrence, which has not yet recovered from its recent financial depression, which almost put the city into bankruptcy would have to bear the expense attending the military patrol by eight companies of the state militia, officers in military dress stated that the city would not have to pay the bills.

According to the same officials, the state militia law require all bills for services rendered by the state militia sent to the quartermasters and the payment is made by the state treasurer. The expense of quartering and providing the companies of militia doing patrol duty here is about $900 a day and would be a severe drain on the city's finances.

Operatives Leave the City
As a result of the strike small bodies of operatives have left the city, a fair proportion to return to their native homes. One party numbering 150 Polish people have started for Poland. Some other operatives have sought work in nearby cities and towns. At the Washington mills 500 employees have voted to remain until the strike difficulties have passed.

The strikers made arrangements for a big parade today through the principal streets.

The difficulty involved by the textile workers' strike was not the only matter that commanded the attention of the city authorities today. The city will let Lawrence in a body this forenoon bound for Boston, where they were to appear before the state legislature. The object of their mission is to secure permission to borrow $500,000 in addition to their legal borrowing capacity. This action has nothing to do with the present strike, as to hold a million dollars is the sum which has been found necessary to secure in order to clear up overdue drafts and unpaid bills of previous administrations.

One of the incidents of the forenoon was the meeting in city hall of 1000 English-speaking operatives who claimed that they were not strikers but who said that they were obliged to leave work on account of the closing down of the mill departments or from fear of the strikers. These operatives were asked by some of the leaders to take formal action on endorsing and joining the strike. Joseph Eiler, the strike leader, urged such action and claimed that the strike was making progress and was sure to win.

MORE ARRESTS

IN CONNECTION WITH THE LAWRENCE STRIKE

LAWRENCE, Jan. 18.—Guluseppe Corzento, aged 37, was arrested yesterday afternoon near the Everett mill on a charge of being a vagrant. He was held in the city hall on a charge of being a vagrant. He was held in the city hall on a charge of being a vagrant.

Several cases growing out of the disturbances incidental to the strike were heard by Judge Mahoney. Chubicko, Benjamin, Leo Phillips, Salvatore Di Salvo and Leonard Lombardi were fined $25. Mary Martlewich, who struck policeman McArdie, was fined $20 on a charge of assault. Angelo DeGloria, charged with disturbance, had his case continued until today.

LOWELL SOLDIERS

FORCED BACK A CROWD OF PARADING STRIKERS

LAWRENCE, Jan. 18.—A parade of nearly a thousand Syrians was held during the noon hour. The leaders insisted on entering the mill district at the Broadway end of Canal street. Half a hundred members of Company A, sixth regiment, of Lowell, under command of Captain George W. Peters, refused to allow the parade. The militia lined up across Canal street and were thrown up across Broadway from the southerly side of Canal street to form a right angle. They were ordered to present bayonets and the crowd surged almost up to the line of exposed bayonet points. There was no force used and although many of the crowd continually cried for admission to Canal street and the leaders demanded it of the militia officers there was no disorder. F. Marad, said to be a student at Phillips Academy, was the principal leader and eventually persuaded the crowd to turn about and follow the drum corps and flag which had headed the parade. As the start was made the flag, which had been furled, was thrown to the ground and Captain Peters ordered his men to salute the flag. The men presented arms, held the position a moment or two and then, on orders, resumed their former positions.

A SCOUT.

Small Kid—Fay, lolly, yer look swell in dat coat. If yer cares to give me yer name and address, I'll mention yer to a big brudder. He's just got chucked by a goll, an' is lookin' fer another.

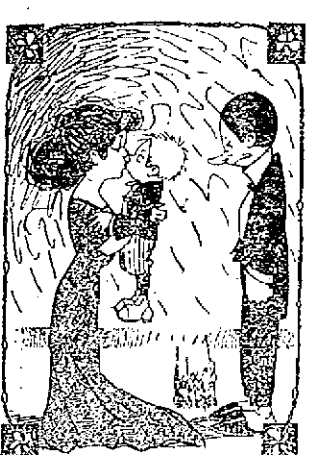

TAKE A LESSON.

He—Here I've spent four years courtin' you and now I'm thrown down by another fellow.
She—Well, he spent less time and more money. That's the reason.

WARNING.

Cholly—Hey! What's the excitement? Jimmie—I see you got a new mustache comin' and I want to warn sis. Our teacher says dere's microbes in mustaches and such things.

TENDER HEARTED.

Sister—Here, Willie, show Mr. Slowpoke how to kiss your sister.
Brother—Aw! I don't like to belittle him.

NEXT!

She—Well, I've given you your answer. Now, what do you propose to do about it?
He—I propose to propose to Miss Rich-quick now.

PROBABLY.

Cholly—Weakly, I must brush the cobwebs from my brain!
Miss Clara—Don't you think it would be simpler to brush the brain from the cobwebs?

Harry says that it is not so much for the salary that he is anxious to secure the place but he thinks he can introduce some new ideas that will prove that no mistake was made in electing him.
